2015 Maryland Farm Bureau Scholarship Winners

Davidsonville, MD (June 5, 2015) – Maryland Farm Bureau (MFB) is pleased to announce the winners of the 2015 college scholarships: Dane Grossnickle of Myersville, Shelby Hahn of Sabillasville, Janai Heise of Hagerstown, Erin Walbert of Centreville and Katherine (Katie) Grace Weant of Taneytown. Each scholarship is worth $2,000 toward the winner's college tuition. All winners are either members of MFB or their parents/guardians are members.

Applicants were required to write an essay describing how they plan to use their college education to benefit agriculture. Three scholarships were awarded to agriculture majors and two scholarships were awarded to non-agriculture majors. Selection was made by a Scholarship Committee designated by Maryland Farm Bureau.

Dane Grossnickle, son of Donald and Donna Grossnickle, is a member of Frederick County Farm Bureau. Dane is currently attending the University of Maryland and studying Environmental Science and Technology. Dane plans to obtain his Master's Degree in Education to become an Agriculture Educator.

Shelby Hahn, daughter of Terry and Teresa Hahn, is a member of Frederick County Farm Bureau. Shelby is currently attending Pennsylvania State University and studying Animal Science.

Janai Heise, daughter of John and Rebecca Heise, is a member of Washington County Farm Bureau. Janai is currently attending Hagerstown Community College and studying Biology with a certificate in Biotechnology.

Erin Walbert, daughter of Melanie and Rich Walbert, is a member of Queen Anne's County Farm Bureau. Erin is currently attending Salisbury University and studying History for Secondary Education.

Katie Grace Weant, daughter of Todd and Joanne Weant, is a member of Carroll County Farm Bureau. Katie Grace will attend the Ohio State University Agricultural Technical Institute in the fall and study Dairy Cattle Production and Management.
